HISTORY:

The Wall of Remembrance was inspired by the three factors, a wish by active duty military for a memorial, the cowardly acts of terrorists on 9/11/2001 and Vietnam Veterans. The memorial was Designed, Built and Funded by United States Marine David Brown and Founder Richard (JR) Nichols in 2011 for the 10 year remembrance of 9/11. It was built to be displayed once but due to the reaction they both agreed to find a way to travel it around America. Through local fundraising efforts and AMVETS of California, JR and Derek hit the road in July 2013 and covered 10,000 miles. See some of the stories on Facebook.
